

One Years Worth of Creative Writing Prompts for Kids

www.homeschoolhere.com

Fantasy

- The creature was shivering in the corner of the room as I inched closer towards it I saw...
- I pulled back the curtain to discover a new world it looked like...
- The castle was so grand and magical, I could not wait for my chance to go inside and...
- One day as I was playing in the garden the elves came hurtling down the hill full of excitement...
- The little bungalow at the end of the garden was always a little dull but today there was something little bit magical about it....

Weather

- Last night while in bed I heard the rumbling of a storm rolling in...
- My perfect day out in the sun would be...
- The rain is never fun except when...
- The wind was howling like a...
- I looked outside and saw the backyard buried under a mountain of snow, I knew it was the best time to...
- My favourite weather is...

Action

- If I could have one super power it would be...
- I was running as fast as my feet would take me but they were still gaining on me...
- I could hear the clock slowly ticking as I waited for the team to arrive the world needed us today more than ever....
- The city was destroyed, was I the only one who survived?
- I belong to an elite superhero team, my name is...
- I knew as soon as I saw him that he was going to be my ally...

Adventure

- Today was the day for an adventure, I packed my bag and headed out into the unknown...
- We had been climbing this mountain for what felt like hours...
- I could see in the distance a light shining in a little wooden cabin...
- I sat nervously in my seat and listened to the planes engines being the roar...

- It was like I had stepped out into a whole new world, the streets of New York were nothing like the country roads I had known my whole life...
- The last drop of water from the supply was gone, now we prayed for some kind of miracle...

Science Fiction

- The commotion outside my tent woke me from my sleep, the Candor's had arrived from the planet Mertor...
- I spent the morning exploring the outside of the crashed space craft, it was still smoking from the night before...
- "Take me to you leader" I stammered with all the courage I could muster...
- The prison was dimly lit, and I could vaguely make out my fellow prisoners, an elkor, a jamgo and a haralo....
- "I did it, I finally did it" now the star ship commander would have to...
- Today was going to be big, all the leaders of the galaxies would be arriving...

The Future

- The best invention for the future would be...
- When I am older I want to be...
- If I could change one thing for the future it would be...
- In 200 years we will travel by...
- Today I found a time travel machine, it sent me to the the year 2308...
- I wish I had a time machine because...

The Past

- When I sat outside our little log cabin waiting for Pa to come home from the coal mines I wished...
- My favourite memory is...
- If I could tell my past self anything what would it be?
- Imagine you have a time machine and go back to 1801, tell them what life is like now.
- The best invention has been...
- I tossed and turned in my bed trying to go back to sleep, I really didn't want to have to go to the bathroom. It was so cold and the walk outside to the toilet was terrifying in the night...

Heroes

- The biggest hero in my life is...
- If I could have a dinner party with anyone from the past or present it would be...
- My favourite superhero is...
- What makes a hero?
- The world needs more heroes because...
- A day in the life of a superhero

Growth Mindset

- Failure can be a good thing because...
- The best part of me is...
- One of my biggest goals is....
- Write a letter of encouragement to yourself
- I am an amazing person because...
- I really want to be...